New Aviation Policy
Venugopal Dr. Ponnusamy

Will the Minister of CIVIL AVIATION be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Federation of Indian Airlines has opposed the move for relaxation in the flying rule for domestic carriers on international routes;

(b) if so, the details thereof along with the reasons therefor;

(c) whether certain new airlines have been strongly in favour of doing away with the said rule;

(d) if so, the details thereof; and

(e) the present status of long pending new aviation policy and the much debated revised international flying norms for domestic carriers?

Answer

Minister of State in the Ministry of CIVIL AVIATION

(Dr Mahesh Sharma)

(a) & (b): Yes Madam. Federation of Indian Airlines have sent their views on the proposal to review flying rule for domestic carriers on international routes citing that the move may adversely impact the existing airlines.

(c) & (d): Yes Madam. Some new airlines of India have shown their interest in relaxing existing flying norms for international operations.

(e): Draft Civil Aviation Policy and policy on revision in eligibility criteria for international flying for domestic carriers are under review.
